

GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 180.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, October 31, 1862.

The case of Private Justus Fay, of Company B, 1st Battalion "U. S. Reserve Corps Cavalry," whose sentence for the crimes of burglary, larceny, and robbery, is promulgated in "General Orders," No. 42, from the Headquarters Department of the Missouri, dated St. Louis, February 17, 1862, has been brought to the notice of the President of the United States.

In consideration of the youth of the prisoner; of the fact that he has been a brave, though misguided soldier in the defense of his country; and of his enfeebled condition—the result of the confinement to which he has been subjected—the President is pleased to remit the remainder of his term of imprisonment on condition that the goods stolen, or their money value, be restored to the owner.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

Adjutant General.

OFFICIAL:

Assistant Adjutant General.
